

Manawatu Standard

Cileme Venkateswar, of Ross Intermediate, won this year's Elsie Locke writing competition for Year 7 and 8 students with her story of two kids from India and Pakistan who strike an unexpected friendship amidst hostilities between their two countries. Her winning story will be published in School Journal, part four, number three.